INTRODUCTION

This is your employee handbook to help you better understand Foray Software, its policies and procedures.

The information in this handbook is essential to all of our employees. Read the manual now or refer to it later when you have questions about company policies and benefits.

Naturally, you won't find answers to all your questions in the handbook. It is neither a law book nor a catalogue of personnel policies. In preparing this handbook, we have not tried to give you the minute details of each policy. Instead, we have attempted to present a summary of some of the more important policies. No written statement, no matter how complete, can be a substitute for direct daily contact with your manager.

Throughout your handbook, you will be urged to check with your manager or HR representative for complete information on employee policies and benefits.

The company reserves the right to amend, modify, rescind, delete, supplement or add to the provisions of this handbook as it deems appropriate from time to time in its sole discretion.

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Mission

Enhance collaborative solution development involving experts from diverse areas to enable continuous growth, to accelerate and cut down project timelines with quality checks at every phase of delivery.

Vision

To deliver long-term solutions to clients, empower organizations, and be part of the success.

JOINING FORMALITIES AND INDUCTION

Personnel Information - Upon employment, all employees will be required to provide relevant personal information for purposes of employee records. Having up to date personnel records and files is crucial as it is the basis for benefit and payroll administration and notification in case of emergency.

The information pertains to details on blood group, marital status, residential address, phone number, email id, bank account details for salary credit, number of dependents, UAN, ESI and other related information.

Induction - The Recruiter and HR Representative will be the contact person for the employee on his/her first day. The Recruiter will be introducing the employees to the client/Manager and will be engaged until the ID gets generated. Kindly note that Foray represents Canterr INC in the USA and you will have to represent Canterr when speaking to the Wayfair management or the Wayfair staff.

- Employee will be receiving an Online Form and compliance forms from the HR Representative to his/her personal email. Those forms must be filled by the employee and submitted as early as possible.
- Employees are required to update the HR Department regarding any change in any of this information whenever it occurs.
- On receiving details from employees, HR will create Foraysoft ID and share with employees the Login User Credentials of Employee Service Portal (Greyt HR).
- As part of the joining formalities, completion of compliance forms, submission of education and past employment documents to HR Representative is mandatory. Check list of the documents can be referred to in the offer/appointment letter.
- Client Induction will be done after the client id generation or email ID generation. The time of client induction program will be emailed to you by Foray HR, alternatively you will receive it by client.

Punctuality & Discipline - To facilitate a productive work environment, all employees of the company are required to report for work on time and to work all scheduled hours and any required overtime. Late login and excessive absenteeism would disrupt workflow and will be considered for disciplinary action. In rare instances when employees cannot avoid being late to work or are unable to work as scheduled, they should personally notify their manager before the start time of that day, or in extreme cases as soon as possible. When contacting a manager to inform him/her of one's absence, employees should also include their anticipated return to work time and date.

The period of service will exclude leave of absence without pay or suspended without pay. Gratuity is payable in the following cases, whichever is earlier:

- Superannuating at the age of 58
- Retirement or resignation
- Death or disablement due to accident or illness

ENHANCED MEDICAL INSURANCE COVERAGE:

- We have upgraded our medical insurance coverage from 2 lakhs (non-floater) to 5 lakhs (floater). This means that the coverage is not only increased but is also extended to cover all family members enrolled in the plan.

Key Points:

- Increased Coverage: The policy now provides a comprehensive coverage of 5 lakhs.
- Floater Health Insurance: This coverage extends to all family members enrolled in the plan. The sum insured of 5 lakhs is shared by the members in case of any medical emergency.
- As part of this enhancement, we want to inform you about the changes in the premium contribution structure:
 1. Premium Amount: The annual premium for the enhanced coverage is 10,800.
 2. Employer Contribution: The employer will cover 50% of the premium amount, reflecting our commitment to your well-being.
 3. Employee Contribution: The remaining 50% of the premium amount will be the responsibility of the employee.
 4. Additionally, if you choose to include dependents (Parents) in the coverage, the premium for their coverage will be separate, and the entire premium contribution for dependents will be borne by the employee.

This upgrade is a significant step towards providing you and your family with comprehensive health coverage. We believe that this improvement aligns with our commitment to your health and well-being.
